SPARKLING VIVONE.

THIS fascinating beverage has since its introduction eighteen months ago, proved a blessing to myriads of consumers. Fever patients say that the inventor must have been one of themselves to have been able to gauge their yearnings so accurately, and that, but for Vivone, they could never have pulled through. Intelligent critics reflect with surprise that they once scoffed at a "wine without alcohol," and now cheerfully endorse the inventor's prospectus. The superiority of Vivone as a beverage is admitted on all hands. To be had at every respectable Refreshment Buffet.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 3.

REUTER'S telegrams of Thursday and Friday were both delivered this morning. The Bank of England return is somewhat less favourable, and although the rates of discount in the open market are quoted without change, private advices are unanimous in reporting money as tending dearer. The effect of this is very apparent in Consols, which at 102½ are ¼ lower in two days. Indian Bank shares are all weaker, Oriental and Mercantile by 10s., Chartered by £1. In Indian Loans there was no change yesterday, but on Thursday 3½ per cent. Sterling Paper was ¼ and 4½ per cent. Rupee ¼ higher. French Rentes were ¼ up yesterday at 116¼.

Linseed is reported dull, with a partial decline of 6d., and Wheat is 3d. to 6d. lower in London.

Metals evince a marked downward tendency. In Copper a decline of £1 per ton is recorded, in Yellow Metal ¼d. per lb., and in Hard Spelter 5s.

Piece-goods in Manchester are reported quiet, but steady at previous prices. The Liverpool Cotton market, however, is undergoing one of the most rapid declines we have witnessed for some years past. On Thursday the tone was given as depressed, and a decline of ¼d. took place in Mid-Uplands, Good Fair Dhollera, Good Hingunghaut, G. F. Ginned Dharwar, and G. F. Compta, and 1-16d. in Fair Dhollera, Fair Omra, Good Dhollera, Good Omra, and Good Broach, whilst Americans to arrive were 7-64d. lower. Yesterday the tone was called steadier, the sales being 12,000 bales; and while no change was made in spot prices, Americans to arrive recovered 3-64d. to 5-64d. To-day's market is said to have closed in favour of buyers, but without actual change in prices, the day's sales being 8,000 bales, of which 1,000 were Surats.

In New York ready Mid-Uplands receded to 10½ cents on Thursday, and have not moved since. March shipment, which stood at 10·65 on Wednesday last, advanced to 10·68 yesterday; but to-day is down to 10·61 cents per lb.

We subjoin our usual weekly comparison of the statistical position. The total visible supply has increased by 170 000 bales during the week, the increase being attributable, of course, to the heavy receipts at the American ports. These, it will be observed, are now 38,000 bales ahead of last season, and only 221,000 bales behind 1880-81, when the total crop was 6,600,000 bales. At the present rate of increase it seems extremely likely that this season will reach that total eventually, if not even exceed it; and when we take, further, into account the favourable crop prospects we have on this side, there seems every reason to believe we have not yet seen the bottom of prices.

The American Crop figures to date give the following comparisons with the two previous seasons:—

	1882.	1881.	1880.
Week's receipts	242,000	215,000	235,000
„ Exports to U. K.	101,000	43,000	76,000
„ „ to Continent	70,000	65,000	73,000
Total receipts since 1st Sept.	1,412,900	1,376,000	1,631,400
„ Exports to U.K. „	456,000	442,700	562,600
„ „ to Cont. „	283,000	218,100	277,700
„ Stock in the ports	350,000	697,000	794,000
Saturday's Receipts	39,000	32,000	30,000

The total visible supply of cotton for all Europe on the 3rd instant affords the following comparison with the two previous years:—

	1882.	1881.	1880.
Total supply of all kinds	2,020,000	2,193,200	2,018,810
Do. do. Surats	550,000	341,050	256,980
For the United Kingdom only the figures are:—
Stock in Liverpool	462,000	509,310	406,960
„ Glasgow „	75,000	46,020	42,27
American Afloat „	17,000	161,000	251,000
East Indian „	88,000	41,000	32,000
	642,000	757,330	732,230
Price of Mid-Uplands	6½d.	6¾d.	6¾d.
Do. Fair Dhollera	4 1-16d.	4¼d.	4¼d.
Difference	2 3-16d.	2¼d.	1¾d.

EXCHANGE.—The continued rise in Bar Silver at home, Reuter says, to 51¼d., some private telegrams to 51½d., has again rendered sterling [illegible] Parsee holiday.

COTTON has been extremely weak to-day, with considerable pressure to sell. For export some Bengals have been bought at Rs. 147 for Good and Rs. 166 for Fine, and further sales to natives by Europeans are reported of Good American S[illegible] at Rs. 185 for February and Good Gin[illegible] for March at Rs. 218 per candy.

The Bombay Gazette

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1882.

ONE of the latest appeals made in Bombay for the assistance and sympathy of the Education Commission was that of the "bankers, shroffs, merchants, and traders carrying on business in Bombay," which we published last week. With the general tenor of the memorial, that the education afforded by Government in its schools should be such as to fit the young for the serious work of life, and not merely to enable them to pass a Matriculation examination, we fully concur; but the document seems strangely immature and the subject ill-digested. It is not a memorial which should go forth as expressing the mature views of the mercantile community of Bombay. There are four European merchants and over two hundred natives who have appended their signatures to this document, and it is therefore an interesting point to see what these members of the mercantile community want, and how they propose that their wants are to be supplied. The want is clearly expressed: it is "that of clerks and accountants thoroughly trained up in the native and European systems of banking, book-keeping, casting up of mercantile accounts, and carrying on mercantile correspondence, and of men qualified by their education to take up posts of managers of banking or mercantile institutions." After stating the difficulty of getting men to fill the places of the "old dead or dismissed hands," they call attention to the large number of firms in Bombay, the great value of its trade, the changed condition of modern trade, and the necessity of despatch in all mercantile transactions of the present day; and they then state that from this "some idea may be formed of the necessity of a wide field of selection for men trained up in the native and European systems of book-keeping." We must here confess our inability to follow this train of reasoning. Admitted the large number of firms, and the great value of produce changing hands in trade, and the value of time; does all this lead up to a training in book-keeping only? Parturient montes, &c. Then is given the cause of all this sparsity of knowledge of book-keeping, which is apparently the only thing wanting to enable men to meet the requirements of the trade of the present day. The fault lies with Government; it is the result of the present system of primary and secondary education, which greatly circumscribes the field of selection of men of business qualifications. And the remedy? This follows promptly: namely, "arrangements for conveying in primary and secondary schools a knowledge of raw and manufactured products, an exposition of the first general principles of trade, and of the economic laws which govern the distribution and exchange of commodities." For this purpose manuals are suggested, to be prepared by a committee to be appointed by Government; little boys and girls are to be taught banking and book-keeping—it is suggested that these subjects are to be introduced as regular subjects into all schools—and state patronage is to be given to masters of indigenous schools who will adopt the course of study.

Now, we would like to ask the four European and two hundred odd native merchants who have thus put their hats and puggries on the ground and with folded hands begged the assistance of their ma-bap in this matter, whether any one of them ever learned book-keeping at school, and if so whether he found it of the slightest use to him; whether any one of them ever studied the nature of the raw and manufactured products of India, and if so whether he found it help him in buying his cotton or in selling his wheat; whether any of them

THE following telegram from the Political Resident, Aden, dated 2nd November 1882, has been received :—" A telegram to the following effect has been received from the British Consul General at Cairo : Cairo, November 2. Following from Consul at Alexandria : Cholera at Mecca since 24th October. Sanitary Board has decided to apply the reglement against arrivals from Arabian ports during pilgrim season. Public health Jeddah good." Telegram from the Government of India, Home Department, dated 3rd November, 1882 :—" Secretary of State telegraphs outbreak of cholera at Mecca since October 24. Quarantine at Suez against arrivals from Arabian ports during pilgrim season."

FRIDAY'S Allahabad paper remarks :—" The Postal authorities have more than kept their word, this week, in connection with the despatch from Bombay of the English mail arriving too late to catch the ordinary train. Midnight was the limit of time fixed for a special engine and van to be started with a view to overtaking the Calcutta train ; but on Wednesday morning the special was despatched at 2-40 a. m., and it steamed into Allahabad station before 10 a. m. yesterday."

A CALCUTTA paper points out that the retirement of Mr. Justice Morris will make Mr. Justice Mitter the senior Puisne Judge of the Calcutta High Court.

THE inaugural convocation of the Punjab University is to be held on the 18th instant.

TWO vacancies have been created in the Council of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal by the resignation of Mr. Barbour and Mr. Cockerell, C.S.I.

A MADRAS paper says the Maharajah of Travancore will not proceed to Calcutta to be invested with the insignia of the G. C. S. I., but the ceremony will probably take place at Madras.

THE Pioneer has the following curious "domestic" announcement :—At La Martiniere, Lucknow, on the 1st November, Mr. Gannon, of a son.

IT is quite time, the Indian Spectator considers, that some guardian of public health looked after the manufacture of soda and other aerated waters in Bombay. The Gujerat Mitra warns the people in Surat against "cheap" soda. The people of Bombay have been similarly warned before. But the sole of cheap soda water and leemlate is growing brisker than before. If the Chemical Analyser were to put a few drops of these poisonous adulterations into his test-glass, he would be soon able to tell Dr. Weir why certain localities abound in low fevers and other results of cheap luxuries.

"THURSDAY'S Gazette opens his leader with a sly hit at the native graduate and his Professors. To be sure, there are graduates who use queer English. But," according to the Indian Spectator, "the specimen cited by the Gazette is so much out of the usual run of Baboo-English, that one might well suspect it is the work of a humorous Englishman designed to entrap unwary critics like the Samachar ! Seriously, we cannot but deprecate this tendency of running down the poor graduate." The passages quoted from the graduate's letter were not intended to be samples of Baboo-English—indeed, the composition was very creditable—but to illustrate the extraordinary ideas which get into the heads overducated young men.

PROFESSOR WORDSWORTH has brought the wrath of the Bombay Guardian down upon him by the following statement, made before the Education Commission :—

The conversion of an educated native to any form of Christianity, in Bombay, would be an event almost as surprising as the conversion of an educated Englishman to Mahomedanism or Hinduism.

The Guardian says, in the course of a long diatribe :—" Principal Wordsworth has thought fit to avail himself of the opportunity given him by the Education Commission to say what he knew about education, to say something that he does not know about Christianity. . . . We are quite ready to admit that as it was in the days of the apostles, so it is now ; not many wise, not many noble, not many mighty find their way to the feet of Christ. But some have done so ; and we have the pleasure of knowing not a few men of culture among the native Christians of Bombay. But we must be allowed to say with some emphasis that it appears to us anything but seemly for a man in the position of this Professor, who has so openly exerted himself to cause the students of this Presidency to look with disesteem upon Christianity, to turn round now and stigmatize all who have embraced the Gospel as uneducated."

CALCUTTA does not appear to be very enthusiastic about greeting the troops returning from Egypt. The Englishman of Thursday last writes :—" The squadron of the 6th Bengal Cavalry which left us to go to Egypt may be expected to return to Calcutta some time to-day. Major Fletcher, their commander, saw but little of the campaign, as he fell down into the hold of the steamer in which he went to Egypt, and had to spend some time in hospital. No preparations seem to have been made to give any public reception to the gallant men, and it would be a graceful compliment if the Mounted Volunteers met them at the station and escorted them to Balliganj. The form of entertainment to be given to the men ought at once to be taken into consideration, and a managing committee appointed."

THE official summary of the North-West Provinces crop and weather report for the week ended on the 1st instant states that no rain had fallen. Rain was wanted in Kumaun and part of Sitapore for the rabi sowings. The kharif harvest was nearly over. The rabi sowings were germinating well. The markets were well supplied. Prices were falling in three districts ; elsewhere they were stationary. Cholera continued in Rai Bareli, but was abating elsewhere. Cattle-disease continued in four districts.

THE following is the official summary of the report on the weather and crops in Assam for the week ended the 19th of October.—" Heavy rain and stormy weather in the hill districts and Brahmaputra valley have done some damage to the cold-weather crops. At the end of the week the weather became clear and cool. Cattle-disease in Lakhimpur and Darrang decreasing. Public health generally good."

THE Calcutta indigo brokers report no change in the estimates of the season's outturn. Native indigo has been arriving freely in the market during the past fortnight, and about 800 chests have been disposed of by private contract at prices varying from Rs. 140 to Rs. 207-8 per factory maund. Several very good and desirable parcels have already been received, and the quality of the crop from the North-West promises to be of fair, if not of good, quality. Prices obtained so far are quoted at from Rs. 35 to Rs. 40 per maund below last year's average rates.

THE Hindu approves of the attempts at reform in the matter of widow remarriage which are being made. "We rejoice to hear of another case of the re-marriage of a Brahmin Hindu widow at Rajahmundry. . . . We cannot but commend to the admiration of the public the perseverance, and self-sacrifice of the band of patriots labouring at Rajahmundry for the good of their helpless countrywomen. None but the Hindus can understand the bitter persecution, malice, and hatred to which a Hindu social reformer is subjected ; and yet this patriotic band has pushed on its object vigorously, fearlessly, and unostentatiously. We counsel moderation and conciliation, so as to avoid a reaction, which means retrogression ; and we conclude by wishing the patriots and their cause godspeed and success.

THE Pioneer thinks that on the whole the reply now sent by the Government of Bombay to the Government of India, in reference to the comments made by Simla on the original Bombay Resolution about self-government, must be accepted as very satisfactory. The Bombay Government has had the good sense to drop the tone which was so objectionable in its earlier composition, and promises concurrence with the policy of the Government of India in an ungrudging spirit. It has something like a case against the Government of India, moreover, when it argues that the magnitude and character of the reforms now contemplated were not clearly apparent from the earlier circulars on the subject. They were quite apparent before the late Bombay Resolution was issued, indeed—but the Government of India will certainly not be disposed to wrangle about that now, when the Bombay authorities show a disposition to help on the work inhand.

ALLAHABAD exhibits some alarm at a threatened invasion by the Salvationists. The Pioneer of Friday remarks :—A correspondent, who came up from Manikpur yesterday morning, says that a contingent of the Salvation Army was in the tram. We hope the new arrivals will show a better discretion than they did at Bombay, and that in the other event, the authorities here will be as energetic as those at Bombay in controlling foolish excesses of misplaced zeal.

No time has been lost by the British Burmah authorities in giving effect to the Government of India's orders with regard to jail labour. Already the Chief Commissioner has come to an arrangement by which the saw-mill attached to the Rangoon Central Jail is to be taken over, at a valuation, by Mr. Coath, the engineer who was formerly in charge of it. Mr. Coath will also take over the machine for making cart-wheels hitherto in use in the Moulmein Jail. That Mr. Bernard is in earnest is shown by the fact that he is getting rid of the ice machine at Thayetmyo. This machine will probably be made over to one of the regimental workshops.

IN consequence of representations from the authorities at Mecca as to the poverty of numerous pilgrims from India, and the trouble which their impecunious condition causes to the Mecca administration, the Secretary of State has recommended that all pilgrims leaving India for Mecca shall be required to lodge the amount of their passage money for the return journey with an agent at Bombay. The Pioneer says :—It is thought this arrangement may encourage many of the richer Moslems to provide funds for their poorer brethren.

A PRIVATE speculator is reported to have obtained a concession from the home authorities empowering him to establish a coaling station at Perim. It is supposed that ships will be inclined to call there for coal in preference to stopping at Aden, as they will thus save a détour of ten miles ; while a more important reason for doing so might sometimes arise if Aden at any time should be under suspicion of cholera, and so liable to involve vessels calling there, in quarantine.

THE worst feature in the honours rendered to the Egyptian carpet, the Bombay Guardian remarks, is the injury done to the consciences of Christian soldiers by the imposed alternative of disobeying either God or their earthly commander. In this country an extraordinary deference is paid to the religious convictions of Hindoos, Mahomedans, Parsees, and Buddhists ; but Sir Garnet Wolseley seemed to think it a matter of not the slightest consequence how much the conscience of the British soldier might be wounded by the order of the day.

A LETTER from an officer who was engaged at Kassassin and Tel-el-Kebir has been forwarded to an up-country paper, which says, regarding the first-named action :—"On the 9th August the enemy attacked in force, and as we were going on just as if encamped at Aldershot, they actually came right up to us and shelled our camp. Had the enemy been any but what they were, I really think few of us would have got away. Luckily the Indian Cavalry, who behaved very well, delayed their advance while we got under arms ; and very quickly we got under arms too, for a shell dropping into one's tent is a wonderful incentive to speed." The same letter gives the following additional information :—"The difficulties of transport were enormous. The only way to get on even with carts lightly laden was to take half the carts, put all the horses to them and march a few miles, returning afterwards for the second half. Even then it was fearfully hard work, and we took two days to cover eleven miles, some of the horses dying on the way. . . . After the first rush into Tel-el-Kebir we shot down the Egyptians like rabbits, as they ran from the works. Their dead and wounded lay in rows upon rows on the banquette and behind the earthworks. . . . I shall never forget the week some of us had to spend on the battlefield afterwards. The stench was awful, and the flies ! Language cannot depict the utter loathing and disgust with which we lived our lives. I have seen strong men vomiting by whole companies and battalions."

THOSE who know "Chinese Gordon" will not be surprised, the Pioneer's Political Correspondent thinks, to hear of his disagreement with the Cape Ministry. "The marvel is that he should ever have gone to South Africa at all. If he were not so capricious and self-willed as he seems to be in these latter days, what an excellent man Gordon would be to assist the Khedive in reorganizing the Egyptian military and police ! Tewfik has nevertheless a good man in Baker Pasha."

MEDICAL AND PHYSICAL SOCIETY.

THE usual monthly meeting of this Society was held in the library of the University on Friday evening last. Present : Dr. Carter, President, in the chair. Drs. Dymock, Codrington, Bainbridge, Arnot, R. N. Khory, T. Bhicajee, Maneckjee Sorabji, S. Arjun, Rozario, DeSouza, R. Blaney, P. F. Gomes, Gray, Pesikaka, Patterson, A. Pandurang, H. J. Khambata, Manser, A. P. Cama, Barker, and Cody joint secretary.

The first business was the usual routine business a resolution was proposed by Dr. Carter expressing the regret of the Society at the death of Dr. Morehead, one of its earliest and most zealous promoters. This was seconded by Dr. Gomes, and was carried without dissent, it being generally felt that the Society had lost an able supporter, and one who, although his connection with India had long been severed, still sympathised with its working up to the day of his death.

The following papers were then read and discussed :—

1. Notes on a late outbreak of fever in Bombay, by H. V. Carter, M.D., with the co-operation of P. F. Gomes, G. G. M. C.

THE GIRGAUM GYMNASIUM AND SWIMMING BATH.

A MEETING for the distribution of prizes of silver medals and books to the successful pupils of the institution was held on its promises in the rear compound of Sunkersett House, Girgaum main road, on Saturday afternoon last, Mr. N. Byramjee Jeejeebhoy presiding. On two sides of the bath seats for tiers were arranged for the spectators, among whom were several Parsee ladies, who commanded a good view of the aquatic exercises of the pupils. An effort had been made by means of bunting, to give the premises a gala appearance for the occasion ; and a band played for the amusement of the visitors. Among those present were observed Mr. Nana Morojee, the President of the institution, Messrs. Dadabhoy Nowrojee, Raghunath N. Khote, Hormusjee N. Saklatwalla, Khan Bahadoor M. C. Murzban Messrs. K. R. Cama, Dinanath R. Khote, N. R. Ranina, Eduljee Rustomjee Reporter, K. N. Kabrajee, and many others.

The pupils, one after another, at stated intervals, jumped into the bath from platforms which had been specially prepared at different elevations, and went through exercises in various branches of swimming, such as header, diving, carrying weights, treading, floating, paddle, dog-swimming, chest-strokes, back-strokes, swimming with hands over head, and taking circles. The performances of some of the pupils, especially the little ones whose ages ranged from ten to twelve years, elicited applause. The assembly afterwards adjourned to the gymnasium grounds, where also seats had been provided for them.

Mr. N. H. Patel the secretary, in giving a brief account of the institution, said it was now in the seventh year of its existence and had trained no less than 1,200 persons. It was of a cosmopolitan character, and was the only institution for swimming open to all classes of the community. Some of the pupils, who were poor, were trained free of charge. The Government had been most liberal in the training of respectable persons. The usefulness of the bath was being more and more recognised and appreciated. The maximum number of pupils was at one time 70, the highest figure shown by the bath register since its establishment ; and the maximum at one time last year was 65. There had been a decline in the number from November, 1881, to February, 1882 ; while from March to October, 1882, the number's average was 57. One very gratifying feature of the period under report was an annual increase of Hindu pupils. The only balance that now remained in the hands of the committee out of former donations was one of Rs. 150 from Mr. Sorabjee Shapurjee Bengalee, C.I.E. A donation of Rs. 130 had been received from a Parsee gentleman, under the nom de plume of "A well-wisher, J.;" another of Rs. 50 from Mr. K. M. Heeramanek ; and a set of books from a Hindoo gentleman to be awarded as a prize to the best Hindoo student of the bath. The pupils of the bath were tested for three days last month ; and silver medals were awarded to five of them, and prizes of books to others.

The prizes were then distributed to the successful pupils.

The Chairman, in addressing the meeting, said among other things.—I am very glad to have had the opportunity of expressing my warm sympathy in the excellent work which this institution is doing, and of which we have to-day beheld such tangible results. You constantly hear complaints regarding the lamentable deficiency of physical education amongst the natives of this city. The reason is not far to seek. There is not a sufficient number of conveniently situated and respectably conducted gymnastic institutions in Bombay. In the cities of England, and for the matter of that all over Europe, the schools and colleges have suitable play-grounds or well-appointed gymnasia of their own for the benefit of the students, and mental education receives equal attention and goes hand in hand with physical training. It is a lamentable fact that in this country, with but few very honourable exceptions, the attention of both parents and teachers is almost exclusively, if not wholly, concentrated upon mental training. Our public or quasi public gymnastic institutions, such as this one is, therefore deserve our very hearty support and cordial interest. It is a matter for regret that the funds in the committee's hands are so small. I beg to contribute Rs. 150 towards the same. (Applause.) It is gratifying to see that the managing committee of the institution have been fortunate enough to be able to include the most important art of swimming in the course of the instruction they impart here. Either from a false delicacy, or from want of proper appreciation, the majority of the Hindoos and other Asiatic of our people are deplorably deficient in the art of swimming, the accomplishment which is so easy to acquire, and which enables its possessor to preserve his own and to save other lives. One gratifying feature of the report of this year which the energetic secretary, Mr. Patell, has read to us, is that, whereas the bath was up to recently almost exclusively availed of by only one section of the community, the Parsees, it is now made use of by Hindoo brethren also, who now resort to it in large numbers. Let us hope that in time to come we may be able to apply the same remark to our Mahomedan fellow subjects, who hitherto appear to have held somewhat aloof from the institution. Swimming is a favourite sport with the Mahomedans, and those who have travelled in the North-West Provinces know that the Mahomedans of those places are adepts in the art. Visitors to the famous "Kootab Minar" at Delhi and Futehpoor Sikri near Agra can testify to the plucky and daring feats in swimming which mere lads of 7 and 8 years are able to perform in jumping into the river from the top of lofty walls of the "Boolund Darvaja" and other appalling heights. Another gratifying feature in the report of this year is that the highest number on the bath roll that was ever reached was during this month. That is a sure sign of the increasing popularity of the institution, and I hope that it will be able to maintain its popularity in future years and add to its usefulness, which it cannot help doing under so sympathizing a President as Rao Bahadoor Nana Morojee, and so indefatigable a secretary as Mr. Patell. (Loud applause.

Mr. Nana Morojee, the President of the institution, also delivered a short address.

Mr. Baojee V. J. Sunkersett acknowledged thanks on behalf of his mother, Bai Luxmibai, widow of the late Mr. Venayek Jugoonathjee Sunkersett, for the presentation of an address and a silver plate and vase, made by the pupils in acknowledgment of the support given to the institution by that lady ; and the proceedings terminated.

PREPARATION FOR THE DEWALEE.—That is a good suggestion in the Gazette to allow people to white-wash their houses for the Dewalee without charging the usual fee for the scaffolding. A tax upon cleanliness is not desirable at any time, certainly not during a national holiday.—Indian Spectator.

NATIVE APPRECIATION OF A JOKE.—The Gazette was really too hard on the Sámachár the other day. The mistake in the latter's part seems to have arisen from the humorous passages, which he still thinks to be serious, having been found detached, and quoted perhaps without editorial supervision. But to say that the native, and especially the Parsee, cannot understand a joke is almost equal to saying that the baby does not know to draw milk.—Id.

THE GOA RAILWAY.—As had been announced by H. E. the Governor-General the Portuguese settlements in India, the inauguration of the Goa Railway took place at Marmagoa, in Goa, on the 31st October. His Grace the Archbishop of Goa was invited to open the ceremony with the blessing prescribed in the ritual. The opening of the railway was purposely ordered for the 31st Oct., being the birthday of His Majesty Luis I. of Portugal, who was born on the 30th Oct., 1838. His Majesty is the son of Queen Maria II. and of Ferdinand of Saxe-Coburg. King Luis succeeded his brother King Pedro V. on the 11th Nov., 1861. Orders had been issued that the usual public ball and levée at Goa held on the 31st October be dispensed with this year. But the leading officials were, by an order dated the 24th ultimo, requested to form themselves into a committee to make the necessary arrangements to have the opening ceremony performed with éclat. The Government had ordered steam-boats to be placed at the disposal of the better classes of the inhabitants, to enable them to proceed from Panjim to Marmagoa. We await full particulars of the opening ceremony of what promises to be a most important line of railway in India.—Bombay Catholic Examiner.

THE NATIVE PRESS.

THE REJOINDER OF THE BOMBAY GOVERNMENT.

SMARTING under the caustic criticisms in the Imperial Resolution of 4th October last on local self-government in the Presidency, the bureaucrats of "Bombay Castle" have lost no time in giving a rejoinder. That was, of course, expected. Considering the elements of which the Provincial Government is made up, it would have been a miracle of official prudence had there been no reply. The Government of Bombay would be the last to "cave in." It has such a deep-rooted belief in its own infallibility, and at the same time such supreme disregard for the opinions of others outside the sacred pale of the Council chamber, that it was not possible it could sit quiet under the adverse criticisms passed on the universally condemned Resolution of September last which has become public property. So Sir James Fergusson and his colleagues set about in right earnest and in a calmer frame of mind, to take such decent reply as the amenities of State correspondence demanded. And we must confess that they have succeeded well enough as far as the wording of their letter of 27th October proves. No doubt there are manifest traces of an attempt to curb angry feelings, but, on the whole, they seem to have put the best face on a radically wrong defence of their—policy. It is no wonder if under such circumstances we find the local Government giving way to the Supreme Government on almost all disputed points with modified protests. Therefore, while we cordially welcome the more reasonable and liberal spirit which has actuated them in framing the Resolution under review, we regret to state they should have been so ill-advised as to disfigure it with so many modifications. It would have looked very judicious on their part as well as given much less work for pandits to discuss, had they magnimously avoided going into an unnecessary controversy. We go a step further and say, that we suspect there is through-out an attempt at insidious sarcasm which for their own reputation, ought to have been avoided.—Indian Spectator.

WE are glad the Government of Sir James Fergusson have changed their attitude partially, though they still persist in maintaining that the relegation of official chairman of Municipal and Local Fund Boards to their proper official spheres will unmake the work of Municipal improvement of the last twenty years. Though Lord Ripon's reply has proved as a sort of talisman in dispossessing our Government of the idea of "subversion," they still seem to stick, of course under a modified shape, with an amount of persistency peculiarly their own, to the idea that official chairman should be retained at least for sometime to come. To our mind the appointment of non-official chairmen seems to be the cornerstone of the new scheme, and until that is not firmly laid, even the new machinery must remain in its initiatory stage under the grasping influence of a one-side pilot—the official chairman. Given a non-official chairman, the whole Municipal or Local Fund chronic disease may be expected to disappear.—Native Opinion.

THE resolution is evidently nothing better than an ill-advised attempt on the part of the Local Government to retaliate the censure justly passed on them in respect of the mistaken course first taken by them with regard to the Viceroy's scheme.

* * * The public will see that at once and that is a reason sufficient in itself to induce the Supreme Government to drop graciously the controversy specially when the Local Government begins to show a disposition to carry out the new scheme in the spirit of the orders of the Viceroy in Council. Let all parties now think that earnest action for the future rather than unnecessary discussion in respect of what is past, becomes all concerned in the recent discussion.—Bombay Chronicle.

THE COLLAPSE OF THE ABKARI BILL.

YET another humiliation for the Government of Bombay ! The Supreme Government has wisely vetoed that most un-English of enactments, the Abkari Act. This meant a signal defeat of the local officials and a triumph of the non-official members of the local Council, of the Press and the Public. But after all, the position is as humiliating to us all as it is to the Government of Bombay. It is not unfortunate that in all its differences with the
